El Salvador Foreign Minister Press Briefing

(WASHINGTON, DC) – On Friday, February 4 at 9:30 AM, Foreign Minister Hugo Martínez Bonilla will provide a briefing to media regarding developing details of President Obama's March 2011 visit to San Salvador, as announced in his State of the Union address. This week, Minister Martinez met with policymakers in Washington to discuss the trip's objectives and agenda items, including Obama's meeting with El Salvador President Mauricio Funes.

Organized crime has been identified as the most pressing national security threat confronting El Salvador and other nations in Central America. In 2010, in light of growing violence in the region's drug trade and implications for U.S. interests, President Funes presented a counter-narcotic trafficking plan to Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton and outlined opportunities to partner with the United States. A translator will be present at the event.
